I would like to thank my parents for supporting me in my decision to come to Sacred Heart. I would also like to thank my past teachers, coaches, teammates, and friends I've made throughout the last four years for making my high school experience as remarkable as it was. I wish the best for my sister during her time here, as I know she will like it just as much as I did. I will never forget the memories made within these walls.

Mom and Dad, thank you so much for all of the support and love you have given me over the past four years. I couldn't have done it without you. Colleen, thank you for everything you have done for me ever since you introduced me to Sacred Heart as a freshman. To all my friends, thank you for all of the great memories over the past four years and stay in touch.

Mom and Dad, thank you so much for all the sacrifices you have made to send me to Sacred Heart. You have both taught me a lot about hard work and that no matter how tough it gets, it is rewarding in the end. I love you both. Thank you Emily and Lauren for being the best sisters ever. Thank you to all my friends for making these past years unforgettable, especially Meghan Quinn who has been my best friends since first grade. Thank you to my coaches and teachers for great years at Sacred Heart. I am so grateful for everyone who has supported me and made an impact on my high school years.

I'd like to thank my father for his support throughout my high school career. He kept me on top of my game and helped me develop the right mind set to get through school. I'd like to thank the teachers I had throughout high school, they kept me focused and entertained. I'd also like to thank Sacred Heart for giving me a high school experience that I can appreciate and will always remember.

Firstly, I would like to thank my parents because without them I would not be at Sacred Heart. Also, they have been the ones to push me to succeed during these last 4 years. Thank you to the teachers who have put with my sass and sometimes pessimistic attitude, but never giving up on me. I will never forget the times that Kelsey and I harassed Murph during Spanish or the conversations we had with Arnold about being "Born and Raised in Brockton". When I'm older, I will still laugh about those nights were my friends and I had our crazy adventures or those conversations about Honey Boo Boo. I would like wish the rest of my classmates the best of luck wherever life takes you.

My four years at Sacred Heart have been a journey with its ups and downs, and at times I've felt like I've gone through hell and back. There's no way that I would've made it out the other end without the support of my family and friends. Mom and Dad, you have always been there for me and have taught me what it means to be in a family. All of my friends have made high school a truly unforgettable experience, and Pat, we've gone through a lot together and you've always been there for me. Thanks for being such a good friend.

I'd love to thank my mom and dad first. There are no parents in this world can be more patient and supportive as you are! I know it's a hard to agree with your son when he asks to study in a foreign country at the age of sixteen, but you respected his decision. You always encourage me to be myself and try my best on everything that I have passion on. I still consider "being independent" is the most precious gift that you have given to me. Although we are 12,000 miles away from each other, I can always feel you are here with me. I love you, more than anything in this world.

I also want to thank my host family, every single teacher and classmate I have in Sacred Heart. You guys made my high school life a wonderful one.

"I'm not running away. But this is one corner of one country on one continent on one planet that's a corner of a galaxy that's a corner of a universe that is forever growing and shrinking and creating and destroying and never remaining the same for a single millisecond, and there is so much, so much, to see, Amy. Because it goes so fast. I'm not running away from things, I am running to them. Before they flare and fade forever." – Matt Smith

From Cupcakes to Goats, our high school experience has been quite interesting. With a graduating class of under 75 students, we have learned to love, and hate each other like a close knit family. I want to thank my family for keeping me at Sacred Heart, and my friends for dealing with my often Bipolar attitude . Most importantly, I want to thank the faculty. Thank you for putting up with my arguing and debating in class! You will never have another student like me ;)

Words cannot describe how thankful I am for all of the people who made the last 13 years of my life an unforgettable experience. To my mom and dad, thank you for everything, I'll always be your little girl. Olivia & Nadine, I couldn't have asked for two better role models-kitties forever! To my best friends, for being there through everything, I love you all. To those who have inspired me through music, including Walden, Taylor, and my piano teacher Sara. Also thanks to my classmates and the rest of Sacred Heart, my second home. I had the time of my life with you!"But that's life, you gotta take it and run."

Thank You Mom and Dad for giving me the world. You guys have taught me so much that I will carry through out life. You both inspire me each and everyday to chase after my dreams. Kelly- Not only are you my sister but my best friend. Being able to go through high school with you has been amazing. Thank you for always being right by my side and pushing me harder each day on and off the court. I love you to the moon and back. To my crazy friends, with out you guys I don't think I would have enjoyed high school this much. Class of 2013, we did it!

My time at Sacred Heart has flown by. Senior year more than ever, I have realized what a tight-knit, friendly, and loving community Sacred Heart school is, and I am so grateful for that. I also want to thank all my family, friends, and teachers for helping me and supporting me throughout my high school years. I wish everyone the best in whatever they do, and wherever they choose to go. And a special thanks to all my fellow HeartBeat goats, love you guys, you really were my second family. Coming to Sacred Heart junior year was by far the best decision I have ever made. I had some of the best times, and made some of the best friends anyone could ever wish for. I was accused of being an exchange student my first day, and that's how I met my best friends. Throughout the year we had the best inside jokes, like white jeans, and shopping carts, and the Honey Boo Boo crew. I want to thank my friends, my mom, and my grandparents for everything they have done for me because without them I would not have made it this far. Thank you and congrats class of 2013!

Now this is it; soon enough we'll be leaving sacred heart behind us. I will never forget the friendships I've made and the relationships I've built. These aren't things you can just leave behind. These people will follow me through the rest of my life. The opportunities I've been given from the SH teachers and staff have opened new doors for me and have given me direction for my future. I am very thankful to the coaches who pushed me to my full potential and believed in me even when I didn't believe in myself. I'm so happy to have my parents support over these past four years. And my friends, I don't know where I'd be without them. They are the real reason I'm still at sacred heart. Thanks you guys- JR, NC, CK, AH, MM, AT, KG. This season was the greatest season I've ever had in my sports career. Not only did I love my entire team and the energy they brought to every practice and game, but also the excitement and intensity our new coach Matt Bruninghaus brought to our soccer program. Despite our lack of numbers, we came together and formed more than a team, but a family. We went further into the tournament than anyone ever expected and showed other schools that we're no push over. We will fight for every goal, every play, every game, until we've left it all out on the field. This season was not only self-satisfying, but I believe it shows the development of Sacred Heart athletics as a whole and a sign of positive things to come."

AFRICA MISSION TRIP

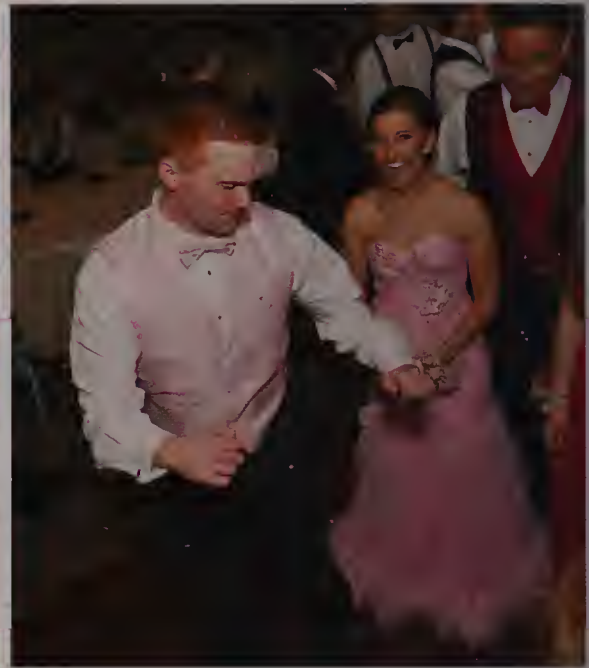

S.H. Social Studies Dept. under the leadership of Mr. George Rose addressed the school's mission statement with a trip to Kisumu in Kenya. Students in grades 11 and 12 , along with some parents , worked at schools and orphanages. One of the schools, St. Aloys in Reru, was founded by Mr. Rose's parents. Experiences included cultural exchanges with St. George's school students in Sianda, and distributing school and medical supplies , clothing and toys. On returning, Mr. Rose's cross country team continued with donation efforts.

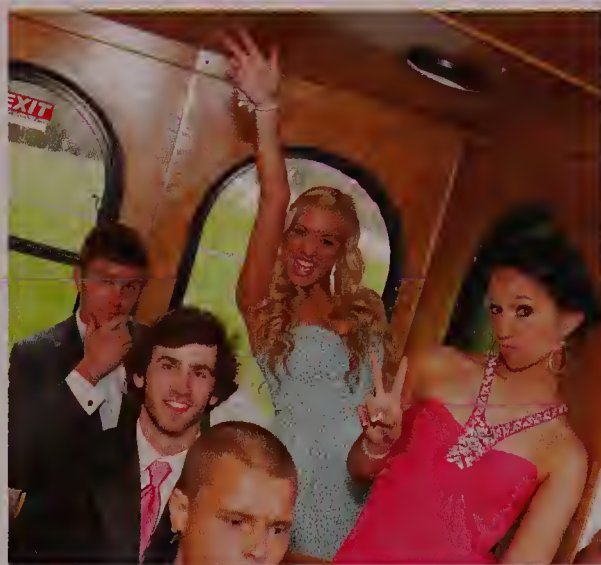

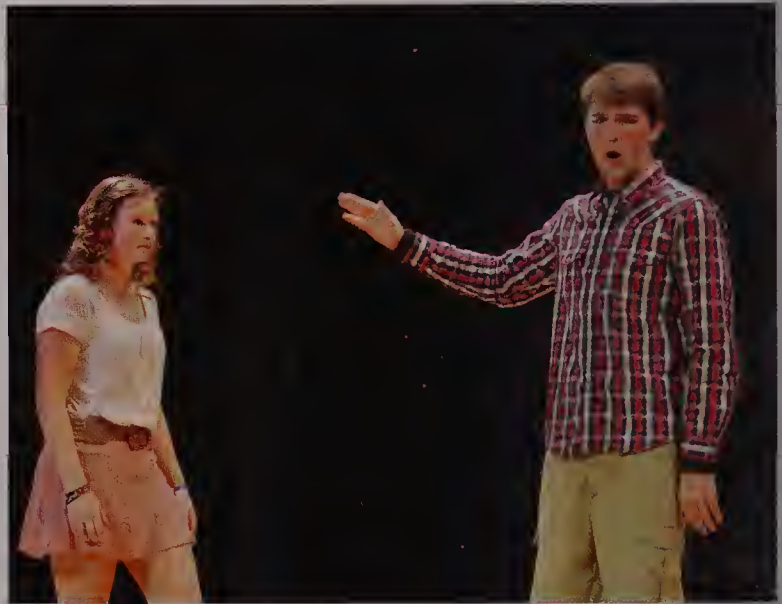

Students share their experiences of their mission trip to Kenya with an audience back at Sacred Heart.

Inspiration, Courage, Determination

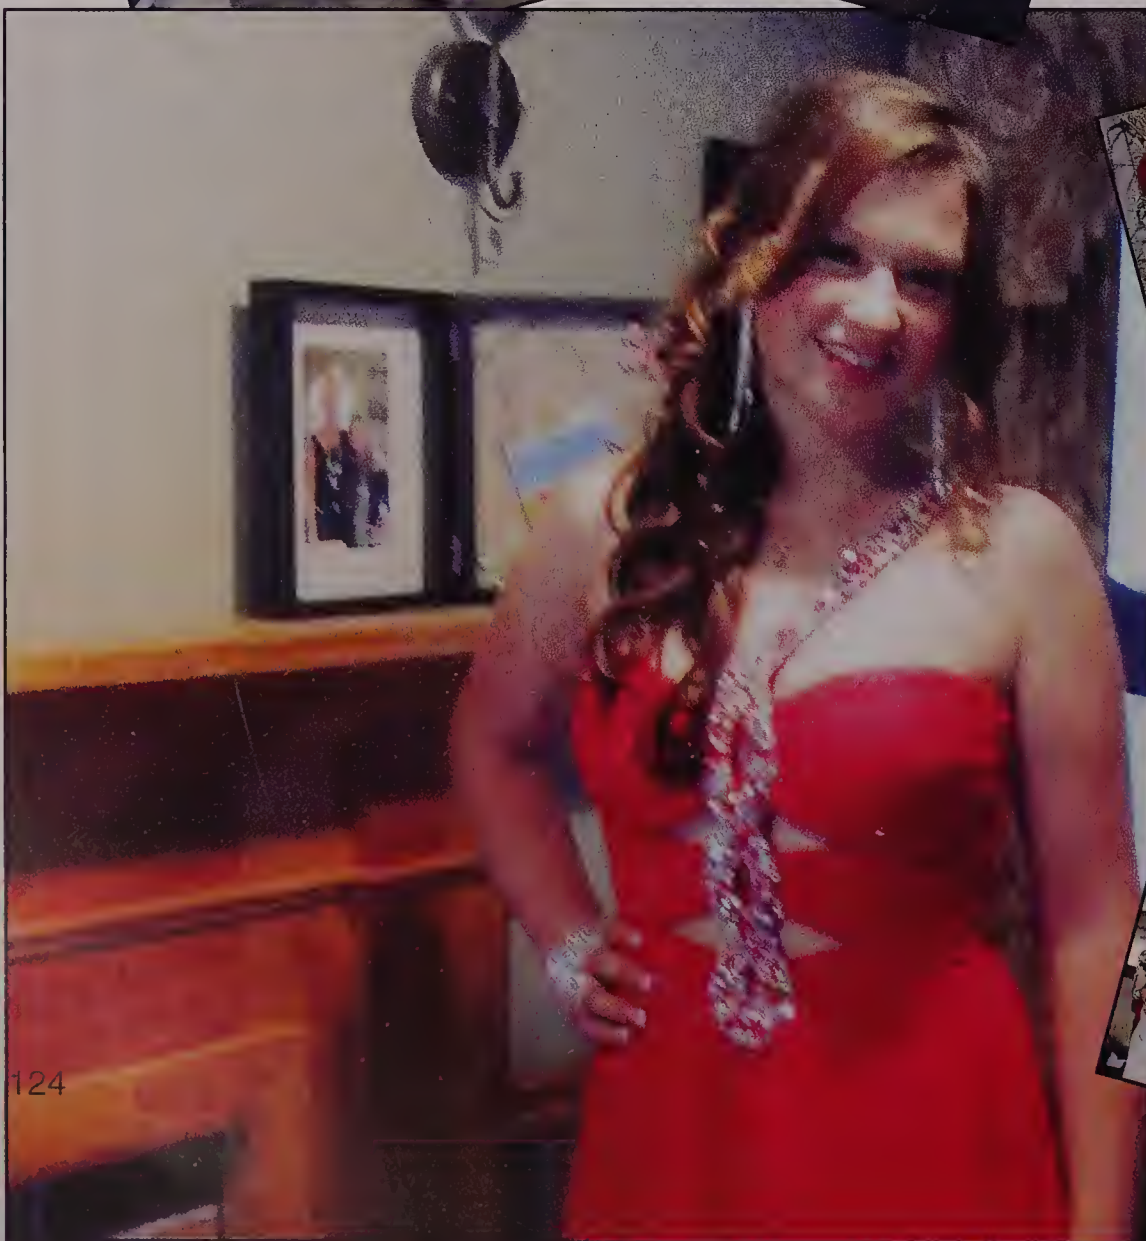

What an incredible journey. We are so proud of all you have accomplished in your life already.

As your parents we have seen the love the respect and compassion that you give and receive not only to those who surround you but also those who have crossed your path.

Continue to live your life with passion take risks to achieve your dreams...

You are truly loved by many most of all your family

Love,
Mom & Dad

Emily Grace Johnson

Thank you for all the joy you have brought into our lives.

We love you very much and are so proud of the amazing person that you are.

We wish you all the best as you follow your dance dreams.

Congratulations,
Mom, Dad and KC

Jennifer Rathje

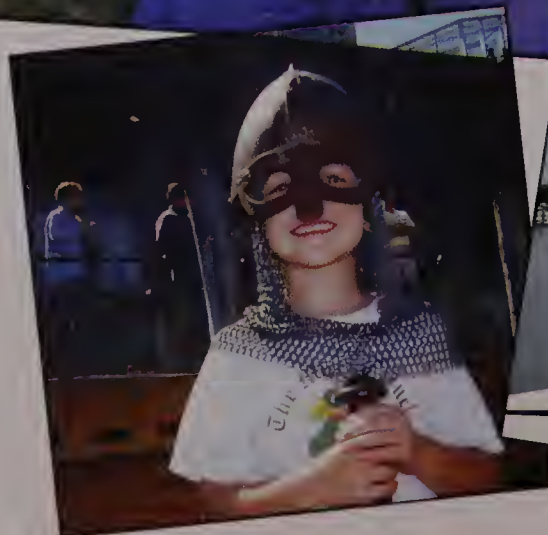

Jenzo,
It is hard to believe how quickly time has gone by. It seems like yesterday the good Lord blessed us with your arrival. It has been a joy to watch you grow into this beautiful young lady. We are overwhelmed by your drive, determination and compassion for others. It is with a great sense of pride that we send you off to the next chapter in your life. Remember who you are, where you are and what you represent! Attitude is everything and trust God in every situation. Good luck at Bama. Roll Tide. We love you so very much.

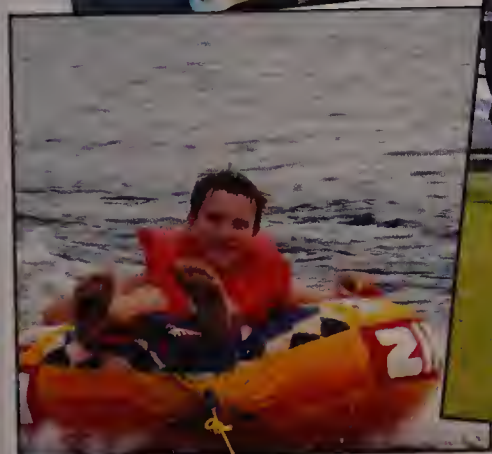

Michael Mackenzie Ralph Nee

Michael, You are amazing! Always with a smile on your face. Your adventurous spirit & passion for learning are inspiring; never afraid to try, never afraid to fail, regardless of what others may think. You found your voice; from recounting your day in detail ("I'm getting to that part..") to singing in the school musicals, the confidence that you have speaks volumes of the man you will be. "May I say something...?" will resonate long after Graduation! You are a good listener; never fail to hear your heart. We are very proud of you. You are a good friend and a great brother, but most of all you are a wonderful son. Your future is limitless; may your next adventure in life be filled with excitement, smiles and success. Congratulations! With lots of love, Dad, Mom and Ashley.

Jamison Johnson

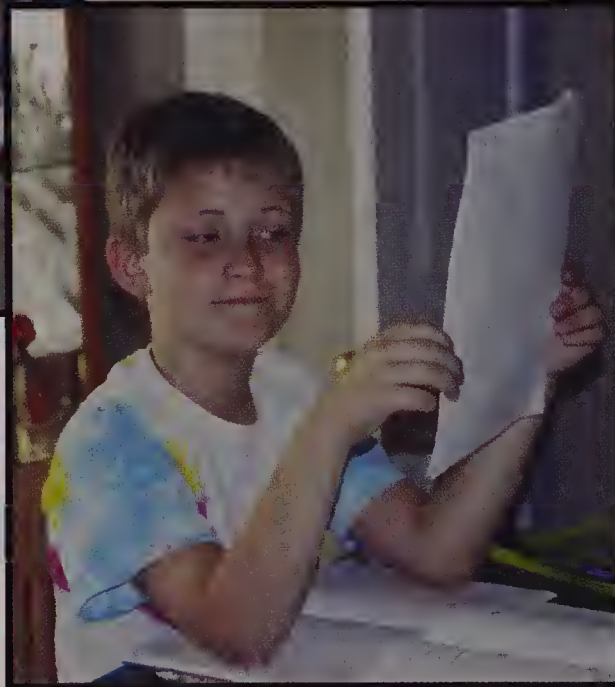

Congratulations
Jamie!
On to the next adventure in your life. All our
love,
Mom and Dad

Chris,

Congratulations on the successful completion of this leg of your educational journey. Remember, success is not based on the things you have, but on the kind of person you are. Your family is very proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Deb, Tam and Sandy

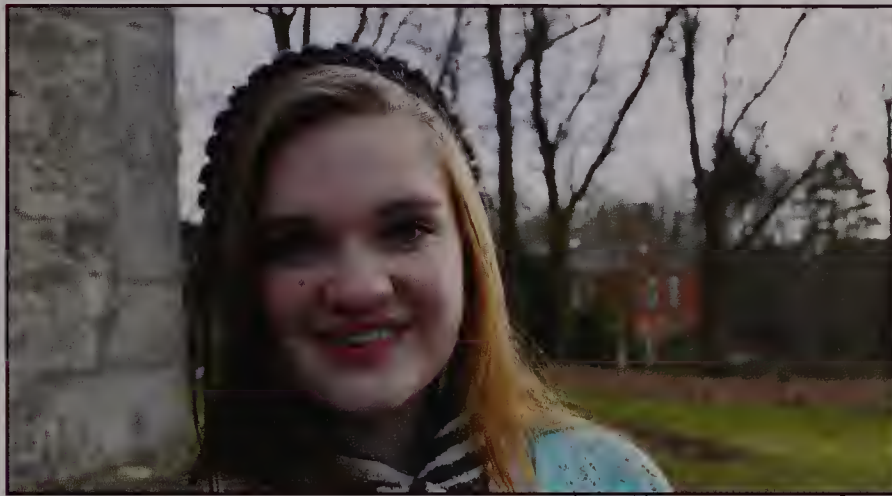

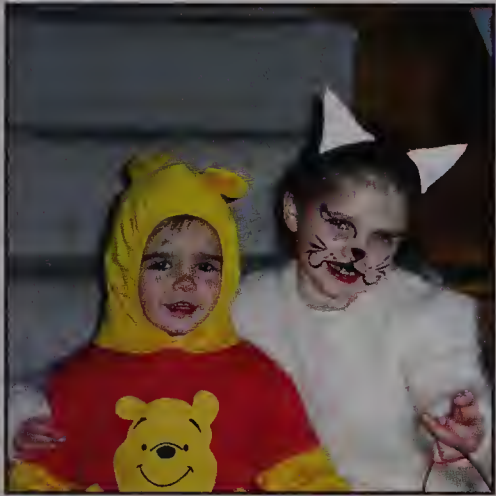

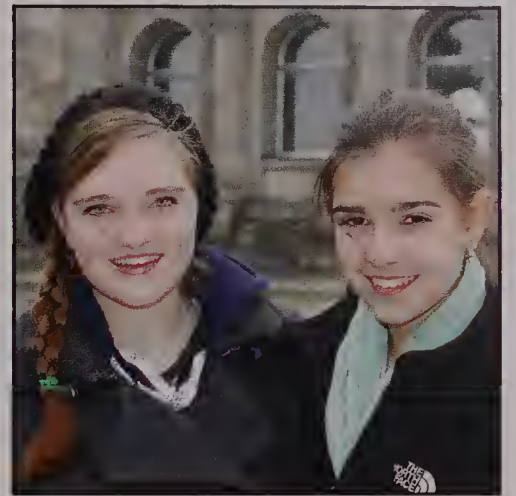

Stephanie Rodway

Steph,
As you begin a new chapter, thank you for sharing the journey with us. You are a caring and loving daughter and an inspiration to us.

Love,

Katie Mullen

Dearest Katie,

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. You have succeeded even though at times it seemed difficult. You are ready to take on the world and become the person you are meant to be. Your talents never cease to amaze us. We know you will use them well. Remember, "Shoot for the moon, even if you miss, you'll land among the stars."

With all of our love and gratitude,
Mom, Dad, Taylor and Bliss

Jay Meyer

Congratulations!
Each and everyday you make us proud, Jay. It has been our joy to watch you grown into
the amazing young man
you are. We have loved watching your story
unfold and can't wait
to see what the next chapter brings.

Kelsey Ann Malone

Kelsey,

It is not easily expressed in words how proud we are of you. You have always made us proud of your achievements, and prouder still of the caring individual you are.

Watch out world! Here comes Kelsey!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Allison, Shannon & Ryan

Kelsey Gailes

We are so proud to celebrate your graduation and all of your accomplishments throughout your life. You have grown into a compassionate, loving, caring and remarkable young lady. As you head off to college, remember to stay true to yourself.

Your future holds great opportunities, take them and accomplish all that you can. Other things may change us but we start and end with family!

"Champions have the courage to keep turning the pages because they know a better chapter lies ahead." Paula White

Congrats and love,
Mom and Dad

I'm going to miss you so much next year; its going to be like Africa all over again. Better supply up on your Moe's while you can now. No one will be home to take me there or to Creyo like Nicole, you, and I did. Have fun in college next year!

Love,
Jordan

Samantha Slavik

Sammy-

We are so proud of you. We feel blessed to have such a wonderful daughter. You have so many wonderful qualities. We love you and wish for you an incredible journey filled with happiness as you seek God's purpose and fulfill your dreams.
